

HTML Training: Developing Accessible Web Content (WET & CLF) (CLFACC, 2 jours)

Tarifs

- Tarification: $1,500/person
- Rabais de 10% lorsque vous inscrivez 3 personnes.

Plan de cours

Understanding the Technologies at Work

The Nature of CLF: Understanding the Components

About HTML5: The Need and the Revolution

How Accessibility and WCAG fit in

How CSS Fits In

Overview of the Content Transformation Process

Understanding Semantic Structure as Defined by HTML5

Understanding Navigation Elements with HTML5

Understanding Tables using HTML5

Understanding Images and Graphs using HTML5

Understanding JavaScript and its use

Legal and Financial Consequences of Inaccessible Web Sites

Creating Accessible and Compliant HTML5 Pages

Working with HTML5 Semantic Structure: sections and articles

Presenting Header and Footer Content using HTML5

Working with Other Structural Elements: asides and more

Inserting Links: New and Old Syntax

A Tour of Old Elements with a New Meaning

Ensuring the Accessibility of the Page

Creating Accessible and Compliant HTML5 Tables

Basics of Table Creation in HTML5

What to Use Tables For

Creating Accessible Tables

About Row and Column Headers

Best Practices of Creating Accessible Tables in HTML5

Creating Accessible and Compliant HTML5 Forms

The Anatomy of a Data Input Form

Ensuring the Accessibility of a HTML5 Form

Using the New Input Types in HTML5

About Buttons and their Use

Ensuring Accessibility in a Data Input Form

The CLF Templates

Overview of CLF Templates

Choosing and Using a CLF Template

Understanding the Elements of a CLF Template

Using a Template: A Simple Example

The Publication Process

Word Capabilities in the area of Web Publication

Preparing the Information for Conversion to the Web

Saving Microsoft Word documents in Web Format: Filtered and Non-Filtered

Understanding Word Outputs: Content and Style

Automating Aspects of the Publication Process with Macros

A Complete Data Export Example