

Change Management Training: Making it Happen (PCHANG, 1 jours)

Description

The effectiveness and efficiency of the change management process in an organization is a primary determinant of its agility and responsiveness. Good change management allows an organization to effectively respond to internal and external changes. The course Making it Happen (Change Management Training) introduces participants to the tangible and intangible elements of good change management. In the modern world, change is inevitable. Good managers anticipate, plan for and manage change. This change management training course will teach you how to manage organizational change.

Tarifs

- Tarification: $850/person
- Rabais de 10% lorsque vous inscrivez 3 personnes.

Plan de cours

The Art of Change Management

What is Change Management? Key Management Concepts

The Critical Nature of Change Management: About Change and Overall Strategy

The Major Obstacles to Effective Change Management

About Change Management and Organizational Agility

The Single Change Management Channel

The Critical Role of the Change Manager

About the Change Advisory Board

About Monitoring and Control

Making Change Happen

The Change Process from A to Z

About Change and the Service Management Lifecycle

Understanding the Different Types of Changes

The Role of Change Proposals

The Anatomy of Change Management in the Real World

Change Management Interactions with other Processes

Tips and Tricks: