

Change Management Training: Emergency Change Management (SEMRG, 1 jours)

Description

The course Emergency Change Management (Change Management Training) teaches you how to design & implement an Emergency Change Management process. The training includes change management design & implementation, the responsibilities of the Change Manager & the Change Advisory Board (CAB) as well as concrete techniques to help in the implementation of an Emergency Change Management process. The course covers practical strategies for people & organizational management for the deployment of an Emergency Change Management process.

Tarifs

- Tarification: $850/person
- Rabais de 10% lorsque vous inscrivez 3 personnes.

Plan de cours

The Change Management Process

The ABCs of Processes

The Strategic Importance of Change Management

Overview of a Typical Change Management Process

Exploring Change Management Activities

Defining Inputs and Outputs

Understanding Triggers

The Importance of Process Monitoring and Control

The Change Manager and Owner

The Change Advisory Board

Change Management in an Emergency Context

The Importance of Organizational Culture

Understanding the Drawbacks of Firefighting – Cowboy Culture

Why Firefighting - Cowboy Cultures Exist

The Obstacles to the Implementation of an Emergency Change Management Process

Understanding how your Organization Handles Emergency Situations

The Advantages of a Process Approach

Implementing an Emergency Change Management Process

Understanding the Requirements of an Emergency Process

Formalizing the Emergency Change Management Process

Defining Roles in an Emergency Situation

Choosing Members for the Emergency CAB

Providing Training on the Emergency Process

Training People to handle an Emergency Situation

Testing the Emergency Process